POLICY ON DETERMINATION OF MATERIALITY OF EVENTS/ INFORMATION AND ITS DISCLOSURE TO STOCK EXCHANGE

[Pursuant to Regulation 30 of Securities and Exchange Board of India (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015]

1. Objective

Securities and Exchange Board of India (“SEBI”) has issued SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosures Requirements) Regulations, 2015 (the “Listing Regulations”). In terms of Regulation 30 (4) (ii), the Board of Directors (the “Board”) of the Sihora Industries Limited (the “Company”) has adopted this Policy for determining Materiality for Disclosures (the “Policy”) at its meeting held on November 18, 2024 for determination of materiality of events or information (“Material Information”), to enable the Company to promptly disclose such information or event to the Stock Exchanges, pursuant to the Listing Regulation.

The Policy sets out the guidelines for identification of events or information within the Company which are deemed to be material in the opinion of the Board of Directors.

2. Authorised Person

Regulation 30 (5) of Listing Regulations provides that the Board of Directors of the listed entity shall authorize one or more Key Managerial Personnel for the purpose of determining materiality of an event or information and for the purpose of making disclosures to Stock Exchange(s) under the necessary provisions of the Listing Regulation and the contact details of such personnel shall be also disclosed to the Stock Exchange(s) and as well as on the listed entity's website viz. www.sihoragroup.com.

Therefore, the Board of Directors have authorised the Key Managerial Personnel of the Company, the Managing Director and the Company Secretary & Compliance Officer of the Company, for the purpose of determining materiality of an event or information and making disclosure to Stock Exchanges. The materiality of the event or information will be decided in consultation with business heads, plant heads, project heads and senior management personnel or persons connected with the event or information.

3. Powers and Responsibilities of the Authorised Person for determining material events or information within the Company:

- To review and assess the materiality of an event that may qualify as ‘material’ and may require disclosure, on the basis of facts and circumstances prevailing at that point in time.
- The disclosure shall be finalised in consultation with the Managing Director and CFO and in his absence, Executive Director or Company Secretary. For this purpose, the relevant details of event or information shall be sent to the Authorised Persons promptly or as soon as practicable to enable its disclosure to the Stock Exchanges.
- To make required disclosures within the stipulated time of actual occurrence of an event or information, after ascertaining facts.
- To disclose material developments on a regular basis, till such time the event or transaction is resolved/ closed, with relevant explanations.
- To consider such other events or information that may require disclosure to be made to the Stock Exchanges which are not explicitly defined in the Listing Regulations and determine the materiality, appropriate time and contents of disclosure for such matters.
- To disclose material events or information with respect to the subsidiaries of the Company.

4. Deemed material events or information

Events or information specified in Para A of Part A of Schedule III of the Listing Regulations are required to be disclosed irrespective of application of any quantitative or qualitative materiality thresholds as these are “deemed” to be material. The applicable events (also referred to as “deemed disclosures”) are given in Annexure-1.

5. Guidelines for materiality assessment

- The events or information specified in Para B of Part A of Schedule III of the Regulations, which will be disclosed based on application of materiality criteria, are given in Annexure-2.
- Materiality must be determined on a case to case basis depending on the material facts and the circumstances pertaining to the information or event and would be determined based on the qualitative judgement to be exercised by the Authorised Persons.
- The following criteria will be applicable for determination of materiality of event or information:
 - the omission of an event or information, which is likely to result in a discontinuity or alteration of an event already available publicly; or
 - the omission of an event or information is likely to result in significant market reaction if the said omission came to light at a later date;
 - In case where the above two criteria are not applicable, an event or information may be treated as being material if in the opinion of the board of directors of the company, the event or information is considered material.
- Any event or information having a significant risk to the reputation of the Company.
- In the opinion of the Board of Directors of the Company, the event/ information ought to be disclosed though not required to be statutorily intimated.
- The quantitative criteria as indicated in Annexure-2, shall apply to events specified in Para B of Part A of Schedule III of the Listing Regulations only and shall be used as a yardstick or reference for determining materiality and arriving at the overall decision on the event to be reported by the Company Secretary.
- Only such impact which is direct, reasonably perceivable and not remote, quantifiable and having a short-term horizon of 1-2 years, shall be considered.
- Notwithstanding anything stated in Annexure-2, the Authorized Persons may apply qualitative criteria for deeming an event/ information to be material or not in cases where aforementioned quantitative criteria cannot be ascertained/ applied reasonably.

6. Disclosure

Any event or information falling under Regulation 30 of Listing Regulations (as per Annexures 1 and 2) shall be informed to the Authorised Person(s) promptly upon occurrence, with adequate supporting data/ information, to facilitate a prompt and appropriate disclosure to the Stock Exchange. The guidance on when an event/ information has occurred as indicated in Annexure-III of SEBI’s Circular dated September 9, 2015 and July 13, 2023 and/or such other SEBI circular(s) from the time being in force.

Any other event, even if not covered under the Listing Regulations but is potentially of price sensitive nature, must also be informed for further evaluation, to the Authorised Persons.

The Authorised Persons will ascertain the materiality of events or information considering their nature and relevant impact in terms of discontinuity of market information and significant market reaction in case of omission. The respective departments shall assist the Authorised Persons in this assessment.

After evaluation, the Authorised Person shall issue a suitable disclosure to the Stock Exchange(s) in consultation with the Managing Director and in his absence, the Executive Director or Chief Financial Officer, pursuant to Regulation 30 of the Listing Regulations.

7. Policy review

In case of any subsequent changes in the provisions of the Listing Regulations or any other regulations which makes any of the clauses/ provisions of this Policy inconsistent with the Listing Regulations, the provisions of the Listing Regulations would prevail over the Policy and the clauses/ provisions in the Policy would be deemed to be modified accordingly. The Board also, at its discretion, has the power to review and revise the Policy.

8. Disclosure on website

As required under the Listing Regulations, the Policy will be disclosed on the website of the Company viz., www.sihoragroup.com

Further, the Company shall disclose on its website all such events or information which have been disclosed to the Stock Exchange(s) under the Listing Regulation and such disclosure shall be hosted on the website of the Company for a minimum period of 5 (five) years and thereafter as per the archival policy of the Company. Any change in the content of its website shall be updated within 2 (two) working days from the date of such change in content.

Guidance on when an event/ information has occurred:

1. The Company may be confronted with the question as to when an event/ information can be said to have occurred.
2. In certain instances, the answer to above question would depend upon the stage of discussion, negotiation or approval and in other instances where there is no such discussion, negotiation or approval required viz. in case of natural calamities, disruptions etc., the answer to the above question would depend upon the timing when the Company became aware of the event/ information.

2.1. In the former, the events/ information can be said to have occurred upon receipt of approval of Board of Directors e.g. further issue of capital by rights issuance and in certain events/ information after receipt of approval of both i.e. Board of Directors and Shareholders.

However, considering the price sensitivity involved, for certain events e.g. decision on declaration of dividends etc., disclosure shall be made on receipt of approval of the event by the Board of Directors, pending Shareholder's approval.

2.2. In the latter, the events/ information can be said to have occurred when a listed entity becomes aware of the events/ information, or as soon as, an officer of the entity has, or ought to have reasonably come into possession of the information in the course of the performance of his duties.

Here, the term 'officer' shall have the same meaning as defined under the Companies Act, 2013 and shall also include promoter of the listed entity.

3. Notwithstanding the above, listed entities shall confirm, deny or clarify any reported event or information in the mainstream media in terms of regulation 30(11) of the LODR Regulations.
